OFFICE OF

D. D. MOODY

March 25th., 1941

TO THE CLAIM OF THE EXECUTOR OF JOHN J. BULOW, JR.,
To be identified for the loss of property destroyed by the hostile
Seminole Indians.

War Department,

Office Indian Affairs, December 16, 1837.

Sir: In answer to your letter of the 15th instant, I have the honor to state that Messrs. L. T. Pease, J. M. Smith, and Thomas Gibson, were appointed commissioners to examine claims for depredations by Creek and Seminole Indians in Georgia, Alabama, and Florida, in April last, under the second section of the act of March 3d, 1837. A report has been received of the investigations in Georgia and Alabama. The commissioners did not enter upon their duties in Florida, in consequence, as is understood, of the existing hostilities, which they believed would have prevented the successful prosecution of them. There will, of course, be no report of the examination in that Territory, during the present session.

Very respectfully,

Your most obedient servant,

C. A. Harris,
Commissioner

Hon. H. Hubbard, Senate U. S.

To the honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled:

This petition respectfully sheweth: That John J. Bulow, Jr. has been a sufferer to a great extent by the wars in Florida; that his house, his crops, etc. have been burnt and destroyed by the Seminole Indians. That his house was occupied as a military post, picketed and garrisoned. Your petitioner has understood that, whatever may be the result of the general application of the citizens of Florida to be paid for their losses, Congress has never refused to pay property destroyed by the enemy, if the property so destroyed was occupied by the troops or the militia of the United States as a military position. To prove the fact that it was so occupied, and to ascertain the amount of damage, your petitioner begs to refer to the accompanying certificates of the major and the general in command, and to the affidavits of respectable gentlemen whose names are thereto attached. He understands that the justice of claims like this has often been admitted, and the principle and precedent acknowledged and established in the case of the inhabitants of the Niagara frontier, during the late war with Great Britain. He therefore prays Congress to take the case into consideration, and pass a law for the settlement of the claim.

W. G. Buckner, Executor.

GEORGE L. PHILLIPS,

Justice of the Peace.

I, Francis Pellicer, solemnly swear, that I have been for several years last past the overseer of Mr. J. J. Bulow, Jr's plantation, Bulowville, at Tomoka, Mosquito County, East Florida. That I am well acquainted with every transaction that has taken place on the plantation, and am conversant with the quantity, value, and cost of everything thereon; and that I conscientiously believe the foregoing account signed by Mr. J. J. Bulow, Jr. is correct and just, and that the estimate of the value of the crop of the present year is if anything underrated.

TERRITORY OF FLORIDA,

St. Augustine, April 2, 1836.

I certify that while in command of the detachments of the 2d regiment, 2d brigade, of Florida militia, in the service of the United States, at the southward of St. Augustine, for the protection of the Country against the hostile incursions of the Seminole Indians, I occupied, as a military post, the plantation of Bulowville, at Tomoka, Mosquito County, belonging to Mr. J. J. Bulow, Jr., with the troops under my command, from the 28th of December 1835, to the 23d of January, 1836. The station of Bulowville was fortified, and several expeditions were fitted out from that post, particularly, the one which resulted in the action with the Indians at Dunlawton, on the 18th of January 1836.

BENJAMIN A. PUTNAM,

Maj. Com'g detachments.

TERRITORY OF FLORIDA,

I certify that Major Benjamin A. Putnam, of the 2d regiment, 2d brigade, Florida militia, while in command of the several detachments of the regiment, in the service of the United States, at the southward of St. Augustine, occupied and fortified the plantation of Mr. J. J. Bulow, Jr., as a military post, and that several expeditions were fitted out from that position against the Seminole Indians, at war with the United States, with my approbation and consent.

OFFICE, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, U. S.

December 20, 1836.

I certify, the papers copied on the six preceding pages, are true copies from the originals, now filed in this office, in support of the petition of J. J. Bulow, Jr.

S. Burch, Chief Clerk.

DISTRICT OF EAST FLORIDA.

I, the undersigned, Thomas Douglas, United States Attorney for the district aforesaid, do hereby certify that I was personally acquainted with Joseph Hunter, (who is now deceased,) one of the persons whose name is signed to the annexed copy of an appraisement of the estate of John J. Bulow, Jr., in his lifetime, and that he was a very intelligent and respectable planter; that I am also personally acquainted with William H. Williams, and David R. Dunham, the other two appraisers; that Mr. Williams is a respectable and intelligent planter; that Mr. Dunham is a respectable and intelligent man, and judge of the county court of Mosquito County, in which the estate of the late John J. Bulow, Jr. is situated; that all three of the gentlemen above named as appraisers must, from having resided in the same county, have been well acquainted with the quality and value of the estate above mentioned; and that, from my knowledge of them, I believe they would not have made an unfair or extravagant valuation of said estate. That besides, I have exhibited the same appraisement to several other intelligent and disinterested gentlemen, who were well acquainted with said estate., and duly qualified to judge of, and decide upon its value, all of whom consider the said appraisement a just and fair one. Of the last item, $20,000. "for the crop of the present year," (1836) they did not pretend to judge farther than to say, that they believed, with good management, more than that sum might have been made from it. Never having seen the estate myself, I cannot certify to its value, from my own personal knowledge.

Given under my hand, at St. Augustine, this 1st. day of March, A. D. 1837.

THOS. DOUGLASS.

NEW YORK

January 10, 1837.

I hereby certify that I was one of the number composing Major Putnam's command while in occupation of John J. Bulow, Junior's plantation, in East Florida, during the months of December, and January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six.

I also certify, that the said plantation was fortified by us, a fort being built, and the buildings barricaded and otherwise strengthened; that there were many expeditions sent out from this station against the Indians, especially the one to Dunlawton, on the 18th of January; that, after the return of the troops from that battle, one-half of them being wounded, and the number of the Indians in the neighborhood being more numerous than was at first supposed, it was determined by Major Putnam and his officers to abandon the post forthwith, which was accordingly done on the night of the 26th of January 1836. It cannot be precisely ascertained how soon after the plantation was burned, as none but an armed body of men could venture in the neighborhood; but it was generally supposed to have been destroyed immediately after its evacuation by the troops. I will further certify, that I was with Colonel Brisbane's regiment of Carolina militia, when they re-occupied the fort at Mr. Bulow's plantation, some weeks after, being the first party of whites that marched into that part of the country after its abandonment by Major Putnam. I found every building destroyed; not a vestige of any kind of property or stock remaining; all had either been carried off or destroyed by the Indians.

CITY OF ST. AUGUSTINE,

County of St. John's, Territory of Florida.

Personally came before me, Hon. Elias B. Gould, judge of the County Court of St. John's county, East Florida, George L. Phillips, who being first duly sworn, says that, on the breaking out of the war with the Seminole Indians, he was captain of a rifle company of volunteers; but that, on the 31st. December, 1835, he was appointed on the brigadier general's staff, and was captain of his escort, which consisted of gentlemen volunteers, residents and transient persons residing in this city; that he accompanied the General (Brigadier General J. M. Hernandez, commanding the eastern district) whenever he went to visit the stations south; and that, on the 1st. January, 1836, the General, with his staff and escort, left St. Augustine, and arrived at St. Joseph s the evening of the same day, which was then occupied as a military post by company D of the 2nd regiment Florida militia, and commanded by Captain Keays. The next day they proceeded to Rosetta, and to Bulowville, having fell in with companies B and C, mounted men, on the road, who had been sent from Bulowville on a scouting party; that the whole returned under deponent's command to Bulowville, the estate of the late J. J. Bulow, Jr., which was the head quarters of the forces South. Here they found company A, and Solana's troop, under the command of Major B. A. Putnam; that General Hernandez, with all his staff and escort, consisting of 22 persons, quartered at Bulowville; that almost every building and many of the negro houses were occupied by the troops; that deponent accompanied General J. M. Hernandez on excursions after the Indians, daily, both by land and water, until the 6th instant, and returned each night to Bulowville; that while at Bulowville, deponent, accompanied by the late J. J. Bulow, Jr. visited every building on the plantation; that he examined them, and was rather surprised to see everything in such high order; and further states that it appeared that no expense had been spared to make the buildings strong and durable; they were all built of the best materials, and much superior to any he had seen in this portion of the country; that when the affidavit was made to the appraisement of the buildings, before him, as a magistrate, in 1836, he remarked that he considered the appraisement much under the actual value of the buildings; that when at Bulowville he saw a great many bales of cotton piled upround the dwelling house and quarters, to form a breastwork for the protection of the station; and that he also saw an immense quantity of cotton, ginned and not ginned, in the cotton house; the sugar-house, and mill, and buildings, were in the highest state of repair, and the works in the highest order; that, to his own knowledge, all the flats, boats, wagons, teams, etc., were daily employed in the service, having been impressed by Major B. A. Putnam, and also by General Hernandez; that deponent left Bulowville on the 7th January, 1836; and that, on the 23d instant, the General and his staff, with the escort, again went South, and remained at St. Joseph's until the 28th instant, on which day the South was abandoned. A short time after, large fires were discovered in the direction of Bulowville, and deponent verily believes the Indians had then set fire and destroyed Bulowville.

GEO. L. PHILLIPS.

Sworn to before me, this 6th day of June, 1837.

E. B. GOULD

Judge County Court St. John's County.

Personally came before me, George L. Phillips, a justice of the peace, duly authorized, commissioned, and sworn, Douglass Dummett, Captain of the company B, mounted men, of the 2nd regiment, 2nd brigade, Florida militia, who, being duly sworn, deposes and saith: that on the breaking out of the war with the Seminole Indians, in the latter part of the year 1835, he received orders from Colonel J. S. Sanchez, commanding the 2nd regiment, to embody his company at Tomoka, and to protect, as far as his command permitted him, the plantations on the Halifax and at Tomoka rivers; that he cooperated with Captain J. Williams, of Company C, mounted men, and was under the command of Major B. A. Putnam, of the 2nd regiment Florida militia; that during the time the troops were south, preventing, as far as possible, the depredations of the hostile Indians, he occasionally had to quarter at Bulowville, the estate of the late John J. Bulow, being the head-quarters of the forces; that a fort was built, and the place fortified, the materials for the building of which were all obtained on the estate; that a great many bales of cotton were taken from the cotton house to make a breastwork round the house in which the troops or a part of them were quartered; that expeditions both by land and water were sent out from the station of Bulowville against the Indians; that after the battle of Dunlawton, at which this deponent was present; the troops returned to Bulowville, and the dwelling-house on the said estate of J. J. Bulow, Jr. was converted into a hospital; and, it having been ascertained that at the battle the Indian forces engaged against amounted to four times the number of the troops, and from intelligence received, that they were also very numerous in the neighborhood of head-quarters, it was deemed advisable and necessary to abandon the post at Bulowville, and occupy St. Joseph's. Deponent further swears, that, to the best of his belief and recollection, the post at Bulowville was abandoned on or about the 23rd day of January, 1836; that it was not ascertained when the Indians took possession and destroyed the property, but it is supposed to have taken place but a very short time after its abandonment, as large fires were seen in that direction.

GEO. L. PHILLIPS,

Justice of the Peace.

CITY OF ST. AUGUSTINE,

County of St. John's, Territory of Florida.

Personally came before me, George L. Phillips, esquire, a justice of the peace, duly authorized, commissioned and sworn in and for the county aforesaid, Benjamin A. Putnam, major of the St. Augustine Guards, belonging to the 2nd regiment 2nd brigade Florida Militia, who, being sworn, deposes and says that, on the breaking out of the war with the Seminole Indians the latter end of the year 1835, he received orders from Brigadier General Joseph Hernandez, commanding 2nd brigade of Florida militia, through Colonel Joseph S. Sanchez, the commandant of the 2nd regiment, to proceed with his company to Tomoka, and take post at Rosetta; also, to command companies B and C, who were at that time mounted men at Mataugus and Tomoka, and Solana's troop, and company D, of infantry, all belonging to the 2nd regiment of 2nd brigade Florida militia; that, in obedience to these orders, he took his station at Rosetta, the Plantation of the late Marquis de Fougueres; but on the night of the 28th December, 1835, he left Rosetta, and took up a position at Bulowville, the estate of the late John J. Bulow, Jr., being more advantageous position and occupied it as head-quarters of the forces south of St. Augustine, until the 23rd of January, 1836; that the buildings thus occupied were the dwelling house, sugar house, saw mill, house and buildings attached to the sugar house; also, the store house as a depot for provision, the corn house, two kitchens, and all the stables, and occasionally the other buildings, having at times a force at the station which required much accommodation; that several expeditions were fitted out from this station, by land and by water, against the Indians, particularly the one which resulted in the action at Dunlawton, on the 18th of January, 1836; that after that battle, the dwelling house was converted into a hospital for the accommodation of the wounded. A short time after that, deponent had to quit the station at Bulowville, as he had been wounded in the action with the Indians at Dunlawton; that, during the time he was at Bulowville, he took the cotton bales belonging to the estate of the late J. J. Bulow, Jr., to form a breastwork round the quarters; a fort also was built in front of the dwelling house for the protection of the place, the materials to build which were all furnished from the estate; that deponent ascertained that the numbers of the Indians in the neighborhood exceeded his command greatly; that, at the battle of Dunlawton, the enemy exceeded his command in number four-fold; that, on giving information of the movements of the enemy to General Hernandez, he ordered him to abandon the station at Bulowville, and occupy another at St. Joseph's, about eleven miles distant, and that it was abandoned accordingly on the night of the 23rd January, 1836; that, soon after the abandonment, the Indians took possession of the place, and destroyed everything; the exact time when the Indians took possession cannot be ascertained, as no one remained, and none but a strong armed force would venture in the neighborhood, but large fires were seen in that direction a short time after the troops left the south. Deponent verily believes that the destruction of this place was, in a great measure, owing to its having been occupied as a military post for the forces sent against the Indians. Deponent further states that it was impracticable for him to impress into the service, at the time he commanded at Bulowville, other property than that which belonged to the estate of J. J. Bulow, Jr.,; that the distance from St. Augustine was about forty miles, and it was deemed inexpedient to hazard the lives of individuals in sending them to St. Augustine. Deponent further states that, in the lifetime of the late J. J. Bulow, Jr., he constantly shipped the produce of his plantation on board of vessels lying at Mosquito, by sending it in flats; that, at the time deponent was at Bulowville, it was impracticable to do so, as that portion of the country was in the hands of the Indians, and no vessel would venture to come there; and that it was impracticable to transport it by land, owing to the state of the country, and the whole of his teams, horses, and mules, being employed in the service at that time.

Major Com'g troops at Bulowville.

GEO. L. PHILLIPS,

Justice of the Peace.

CITY OF ST. AUGUSTINE,

County of St. John's, Territory of Florida.

Personally appeared before me, George L. Phillips, a justice of the peace, duly authorized, commissioned, and sworn, in and for said county, Francis Pellicer, who, being first duly sworn, says that he was overseer of Mr. John J. Bulow, Jr's plantation, Bulowville, at Tomoka, Mosquito County, Florida and had all the buildings, negroes, boats, flats, and stock under his immediate control; that he was there when the war commenced with the Seminole Indians, in the latter part of the year of 1835; that the troops under the command of Major A. Putnam, of the 2nd regiment Florida militia, consisting of companies A and D infantry, and B and C mounted men, also Lieutenant Solana's troop, stationed at Bulowville, which was made the headquarters of the forces south of St. Augustine, about the 28th of December, 1835; that the said troops occupied the dwelling-house, store-house, sugar-house, saw-mill, two kitchens, stables, corn-house, and some of the negro houses; that the whole of the buildings on the said plantation were in the best condition and repair, and built of the best articles, and at a great expense; that the sugar house and buildings attached to it were of stone, and the negro houses (forty six in number) were framed houses, shingled and floored; that the buildings thus occupied were of the following dimensions, viz: The dwelling-house $2\frac{1}{2}$ stories, 62 feet x 42 feet, with a piazza all round, saw mill house 60 feet by 20 feet, and two stories high, sugar-house and buildings attached to it 116 feet by 89 feet and 12 feet high, corn-house 36 x 25 feet, store houses 20 x 30 feet, kitchen 20 x 20 feet each, stable 25 by 30 feet, the negro houses 12 by 16 feet; that Major B. A. Putnam impressed into the service, for the purpose of transporting his troops to different places on the Halifax river and to Mosquito in search of the Indians, one large flat, 52 by 16 feet, of the value of \$300, one flat 20 by 10 feet, value \$80, a large canoe \$150, a small canoe \$70, and a green skiff value \$75; the latter was taken by the Indians at the battle of Dunlawton. Deponent further states that the said Major B. A. Putnam impress into the service, for the purpose of conveying troops, provisions, and baggage and ammunition to and from St. Joseph's and Bulowville, and for removing the wounded to St. Joseph's, to be carried to St. Augustine, two wagons, with 4 horses each, three ox-teams, with 6 yoke of oxen each, all of which he believes fell into the hands of the Indians on St. Joseph's being abandoned by the troops. Deponent further states that about 8 or 10 head of cattle, he believes, were killed, belonging to the said estate, for the use of the troops; that he further believes that the hire of the flats, boats, canoes, negroes, wagons, and teams, horses and cattle, were paid for; also, the cattle killed for the use of the troops, and the corn and fodder used for the horses of the mounted men, but that the flats, boats, canoes, wagons, and teams, horses and cattle, were never returned to the said estate, but, as he believes, were taken and destroyed by the Indians. Deponent further states that there was a quantity of cotton on the estate, which was taken by the troops, to form a breastwork. Deponent further says that there was, on the said estate, a gin-house 42 feet by 42 feet, a cotton-house 40 feet by 40 feet, small gin-house 10 by 20 feet, two stories high, engine-house 14 by 25 feet, one and a half stories high, fowl-house 20 by 30 feet, a blacksmith's shop 16 by 20 feet; and deponent states that the Indians got possession of four prime negroes, name George, July, Scipio, and Abraham; and that, during the life time of the said J. J. Bulow, Jr., and after the troops returned to St. Augustine, and appraisement was made by persons well acquainted with all the estate and the buildings thereon; that deponent was at the building of the houses, etc., mentioned in the appraisement, and considers, if anything, that the appraisement fell short of the real value. Deponent further states that, shortly after the troops abandoned the south, the whole of the buildings on the said plantation were destroyed, as large fires were seen in that direction; deponent further states that every article for transportation on the estate, both for land and water conveyance, was impressed into the service; and that all the cotton that was packed in bales was taken to make a breastwork around the house.

ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

St. Augustine, January 26, 1836.

Sir: The commanding general directs that on your arrival at Bulow's plantation, the head-quarters of Major B. A. Putnam, you will take measures to have the wounded officers and me brought to this place immediately, provided their situation will admit of it, and the attending surgeon shall deem it proper that they should be removed. And you will furnish a strong escort for their protection.

By order.

To Colonel J. S. Sanchez,
Commanding 2nd Regiment F. M.

I, Geo. L. Phillips, a notary public, duly authorized, commissioned, and sworn, in and for the county of St. John's, East Florida, do certify that the above is a true and faithful copy of the general order issued by the Assistant Adjutant General Jno. Drysdale, to Colonel J. S. Sanchez, commanding the 2nd regiment of 2nd brigade Florida militia, and taken from the original order.

Given under my hand and seal of office, this 5th day of June, A. D., 1837, (1.s.) and at St. Augustine, in East Florida.

ST. AUGUSTINE, E. F.

June 7, 1837.

I do hereby certify that George L. Phillips is a notary public duly authorized, commissioned, and sworn, in and for the county of St. John's East Florida, and that his proceedings in all cases as a notary are entitled to full faith and credit.

ROBERT RAYMOND REID,
Judge Supreme Court, District East

CITY OF ST. AUGUSTINE,
County of St. John's Territory of Florida.

Personally came before me, George L. Phillips, a justice of the peace in and for said county, duly authorized, commissioned, and sworn Joseph S. Sanchez, colonel of the second regiment, second brigade, Florida militia, who, being duly sworn, deposes and saith, that a portion of his regiment, viz: the St. Augustine Guards, being Company A, also companies B. and C, mounted men, and a troop of horses under command of Lieutenant Matthew Solana, occupied the post at Bulowville, the plantation of the late John J. Bulow, Jr., at Tomoka, the first for a period of five weeks, and the last only occasionally; that it was made the head-quarters of the forces South of Matanzas; and that the above forces were commanded by Major B. A. Putnam of the St. Augustine Guards; and that the said force had to retreat from Rosetta, on the Tomoka, to Bulowville, on account of the numerous hostile Indians, and afterwards from Bulowville to St. Augustine. That after the troops retreated from Bulowville, the Indians destroyed all the buildings and crops, and either destroyed or carried off everything that was either stable or moveable. That the exact time when this property was destroyed cannot be stated, as no one could remain to see its destruction, but it is believed to have been immediately after its abandonment by the troops; that when deponent was in command of a part of his battalion of Volunteers, mustered into the service of the United States in November, 1836, he, in compliance with orders from Colonel Crane, of the United States service, then in command of Fort Marion, visited all the plantations on the Tomoka, and on the Matanzas; that during the time he was on this excursion, viz: from the 31st of December, 1836, to the 5th of January, 1837, he went to Bulowville, and found all the buildings destroyed but the fort, which had been erected on the commencement of the year 1836, by our troops, for the protection of the place, which was still standing. Deponent further states that the orders for taking up these stations on the commencement of hostilities with the Indians emanated from Brigadier General Joseph M.

Hernandez, at that time in command of all the forces in the eastern district.

Deponent further states that, from the written reports received occasionally from Major Putnam, bales of cotton, the property of the late John J. Bulow, Jr. were used as a breastwork, to fortify the dwelling-house and quarters; that several expeditions were sent out from this Bulowville, both by land and water; one resulted in the battle of Dunlawton.
